

WILLS &amp; TESTAMENTS.

CHAPTER LXXXVIII.

An Act in addition to the Revised Statutes, entitled "Wills and Testaments," to amend the same; and to repeal part of the fifteenth section of the Revised Statutes, entitled "Lands of deceased debtors."

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for any testator or testatrix, by his or her will duly executed, to devise, bequeath, or dispose of, all real and all personal estate, which he or she shall be entitled to, either at law or in equity, at the time of his or her death, and which if not so devised, bequeathed, or disposed of, would descend or devolve upon his or her heirs or heir at law, or upon his or her executor or administrator; and that the power hereby given, shall extend to all contingent, executory or other future interest in any real or personal estate, whether the testator or testatrix may or may not be ascertained as the person or one of the persons, in whom the same respectively may become vested, or whether he or she may be entitled thereto under the instrument by which the same was created, or under any disposition thereof by deed or will; and also to all rights of entry for conditions broken, and other rights of entry; and also to such of the same estates, interests and rights respectively, and other real and personal estate, as the testator or testatrix may be entitled to at the time of his or her death, notwithstanding that he or she may become entitled to the same subsequently to the execution of his or her will.

What may be devised.

SEC. II. Be it further enacted, That no conveyance or other act made or done subsequently to the execution of a will of or relating to any real or personal estate therein comprised, except an act by which such will shall be duly revoked, shall prevent the operation of the will with respect

Will operated of.
